Naturaliter audita visis laudamus libentius; et præsentia invidia, præterita veneratione prosequimur: et his nos obrui illis instrui. Vell. Paterc.

IN a late Converſation I had with a ſtrenuous Advocate for the Party againſt the Adminiſtration, the Gentleman took uncommon Pains to prove not only the Righteouſneſs, as he call'd it, of the Oppoſition, but that the Charge of Envy, Ambition, and Reſentment, ſo often brought againſt the Leading Men of his Party, by the Writers for the Government, was utterly falſe and groundleſs. His Arguments to enforce his favourite Righteouſneſs of the Oppoſition to a Lawful and Mild Government were ſo ſtrain'd, weak and frivolous, that to inſert them would be tiring the Reader with a dull Repetition of what has been retail'd by the Party Writers every Week ſince the Birth of the preſent Faction: His Diſproof of the Charge of Ambition and Reſentment being wholly taken from the ſame Authors, I ſhall paſs by at preſent for the ſame Reaſon; but as my Antagoniſt took quite a new Method from his favourite Journaliſts, to invalidate the Charge of Envy brought againſt the Dictating Opponents, I ſhall employ a few Moments in diſtinguiſhing between Envy and Emulation, a new Term he invented for that ſtrong Paſſion or Affection, which ſeems to have engroſs'd the Hearts of all thoſe that moſt ardently ſeek the Fall of a certain Miniſter in the higheſt Confidence with his Royal Maſter, and with all thoſe that are in the true Intereſt of their Country and the Auguſt Family, under whom alone we can hope for a Perpetuity of our Freedom and Conſtitution

ENVY and EMULATION bear ſo great a Reſemblance, that there are no Affections of the Mind that ſeem at firſt Sight more nearly related to one another. Yet if they be examin'd with ever ſo little Accuracy, we ſhall find that there are none differ more widely. 'Tis allow'd, that both ariſe from a Compariſon of ourſelves with thoſe more eminent in Power, Wealth, Friends or Virtue; but in theſe Compariſons, Envy always repines at the ſuperior Fortune or Merit of another, Emulation bewails only that we ourſelves are not poſſeſs'd of them. The Buſineſs therefore of the Envious Man is to depreciate and vilify, as it is the Nature of the Emulous to endeavour attaining thoſe Gifts and Perfections which they behold others poſſeſs'd of, more excellent and deſerving than themſelves. The ſole View and Deſign of both is to place themſelves upon a Level at leaſt with thoſe above them: But as to this End, the one practiſes all the mean little Arts of Detraction, Defamation, and Calumny, to pull down their Superiors to their own Condition, or lower; the other makes Uſe only of Induſtry, Vigilance and Application, the Inſtruments of an honeſt Ambition, to raiſe himſelf to that Height of Power and Reputation which he admires in thoſe above him.—When this Natural Deſcription of Envy and Emulation comes to be duly conſidered, and applied to the Principals in the preſent Oppoſition, I think it muſt evidently appear that they are actuated entirely by the firſt of theſe Paſſions, without the leaſt Tincture of the latter, and that my Antagoniſt was egregiouſly in the wrong, to beſtow the Epithet of Emulous rather than Envious on his oppoſing Patrons.

I cannot but think how judicious a Choice theſe emulating Leaders (to ſpeak in the Language of my late Diſputant) have made of Writers to promote the virtuous Cauſe they are embark'd in, the Authors of the Craftſman and Common Senſe. Such ſhrewd Inventers of groundleſs Falſehoods, ſuch Revivers of confuted Calumnies, who have no regard to the Dictates of Truth, nor even the Sentiments of common Humanity; that take up the infamous Task of libelling and reviling all that ſerve faithfully their King and Country, and of inſtilling and cheriſhing in the Minds of the Ignorant a Spirit of Bitterneſs and Prejudice, are the fitteſt Tools to be employ'd by the Envious. Slanderous and reproachful Libels are the uſual Weapons of thoſe that act from the Dictates of Envy, but never of thoſe that are actuated by Emulation.

I ſhall conclude this Paper with the Deſcription of Envy by a late eminent Poet and an Enemy to Faction and envious Oppoſition, the latter Lines of which I recommend to the Conſideration of thoſe who would clear our modern Patriots of the Charge of Envy.

Beneath the gloomy Covert of a Yew,
That taints the Graſs with ſickly Sweats of Dew;
No verdant Beauty entertains the Sight,
But baneful Hemlock and cold Aconite:
In a dark Grot the baleful Haggard lay,
Breathing black Vengeance, and infecting Day:
Meagre, deform'd, and worn with ſpightful Woes:
The chearful Blood her livid Eyes forlook,
And Baſiliſks fate brooding in her Look.
A bald and bloated Toad-ſtool rais'd her Head,
And Plumes of boading Ravens were her Bed:
From her chapp'd Noſtrils ſcalding Torrents fall,
And her ſunk Eyes boil o're in Floods of Gall.
Volcanos labour thus with inward Pains,
While Seas of melted Ore lay waſte the Plains.
Around the Fiend in hideous Order ſate,
Foul-bawling Infamy and bold Debate:
Gruff Diſcontent, thro' Ignorance miſled,
And clam'rous Faction at her Party's Head:
Reſtleſs Sedition, ſtill diſſembling Fear,
And ſly Hypocriſy with pious Leer, &c.

To the CURIOUS.

THE most magnificent Tesselated Roman Pavements, which were discover'd last Year at Weldon in Northamptonshire (which is about 9 Miles South-West of Stamford, and 16 Miles North-East of the Town of Northampton) are now open, and to be seen by all Curious Persons; they are allow'd by all who have seen them to be the greatest Curiosities of their Kind any where now extant. An Accurate Plan of the whole Work, and of the Distinct Pavements, by a Larger Scale, has been taken on the Spot, and is now Engraven on a Copper-Plate, and Publish'd on a Large Sheet of Double Elephant Paper, and may be had at Mr. James Cole's, the Engraver thereof, at his House in Great Kirby-street in Hatton-Garden; or at Mr. Kerkall's in Dogwell Court in White-Fryars, Fleet-street, at 6 s. each, and those illuminated in their Proper Colours at 15 s. each; the Sight whereof will better express its Value and Antiquity than any Words can.

N. B. As in cleaning this Pavement several old Coins were found, those are likewise engraven in their true Proportion, and struck off with the said Prints, a Thing entirely new.

This Day is Published,
[Price Five Shillings.]
The NINTH EDITION,
(With very large Additions never before printed, with a new Frontispiece, and the Plates all new engraved, being the compleatest Family Book hitherto extant, beautifully printed upon fine Paper) of

PRESERVING,	MADE WINES and
PICKLES,	CORDIALS.

With Copper-Plates, curiously engraven, for the regular Disposition of placing the various Dishes and Courses; and also Bills of Fare for every Month in the Year. To which is added, A Collection of above Three Hundred Family Receipts of Medicines, viz. Drinks, Syrups, Salves, Ointments, and various other Things of sovereign and approved Efficacy in most Distempers, Pains, Aches, Wounds, Sores, &c. particularly Dr. MEAD's famous Receipt for the Cure of a Bite of a Mad Dog; and several other excellent Receipts for the same, which have cured when the Person was distressed, and the Salt Water failed. Never before made Publick. Fit either for Private Families, or such Publick spirited Gentlewomen as would be beneficent to their poor Neighbours.

Printed for John Pemberton, at the Golden Buck over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever, and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Decay of Constitution or any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and this All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with, succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul-Disease is entirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for 3 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.

The most fam'd and long Experienced Chymical Drops
FOR ASTHMA's and CONSUMPTIONS,
That have been Sold so many Years, and with such uncommon Success and Benefit to the Publick, by Mr. Parry, and his Predecessors, in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street; and, since Mr. Parry's Decease, have been and still are sold only by Mr. Read for 3 l. 6 d. a Vial, at his House in White-Fryars. (N. B. You turn in just by the Sun Tavern in Fleet-street, and it's the great Corner House in White-Fryars; JAMES READ, in great Letters, is wrote over the Door.)

They are a most Incomparable and never-failing Medicine for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of the most confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing:

And of all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, even when so far advanced, as not to be cured by any other Medicine in the World.

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed any Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst Asthma's and Consumptions of all Sorts, Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, &c.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most suffocating Fit of an Asthma, and make a perfect Cure in a very short Time, for they gently open the Breast, and immediately give Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; they admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of acrimonious Humours, cleanse the small Glands, relax the Fibres, and thereby enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they regularly and quickly Cure the most obstinate Asthma of the longest standing.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Consumptions, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstructions of the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Soreness, Shortness of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will infallibly prevent one when feared. They are also exceeding nutritive and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitutions, and have no other sensible Operation than as mentioned above.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Medicine is (and well known to be) the most sovereign Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which many are severely troubled with Night and Morning; and also for the Chin-Cough, and Hooping-Cough in Children, having cured Thousands; is so agreeable, and so few Drops to a Dose, that Children take them with Pleasure, and without any Confinement.

In short, these unparallel'd Chymical Drops are the most infallible Remedy that ever was known (and therefore despite the faint Efforts of all Counterfeiters or Imitators) for the Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the most Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirmed by the largest Experience in private Practice, and are made Publick for Common Good.
